

Herald Cameramen Tell Their Story

TOPPING AMERICA'S HIGHEST SNOW-CAPPED MOUNTAIN—Photo shows a mail plane in flight over the snow-capped peak of Mount Ranier, at an altitude of 14,408 feet. This is one of the sights witnessed by passengers on the regular Seattle-Los Angeles air mail express and passenger route and presents an awe-inspiring sight from the air. The planes fly over valleys surrounded by mountain peaks, eighteen of which range from 8,000 feet to 14,000 feet in height—the greatest mountain panorama in the world. (International Newsreel)

WOULDN'T PISA BE PROUD—If its famous Leaning Tower could lean at this angle without tumbling over? After defying attempts of workmen to bawl it over for two days, 80 foot tower of old Boston Post Office is crashing to earth. New building will be on this site. The tower weighed 400 tons, and was a landmark of Boston. (International Newsreel)

SEINE COURTS ACQUIT FAMOUS DANCER—The case against Rozzika Dolly, famous actress and dancer, accusing her of obtaining $250,000 worth of pearls from two Parisian jewelers under false pretences, was dismissed by an examining magistrate in the Seine courts. Miss Dolly is the wife of Mortimer Davis, son of the late Sir Mortimer, multi-millionaire Canadian tobacco king. (International Newsreel)

KEYSTONE POLICE ADOPT TELETYPE SYSTEM—Superintendent of Police Mills, Philadelphia, seated at the new teletype machine sending out the first message over the new system connecting the State police bureaus throughout Pennsylvania and installed for the purpose of dispatching police warnings and crime communications. Mayor Mackay is watching the inauguration of the new system. (International Newsreel)

U. S. NAVY'S NEWEST GIANT SUBMARINE, V-5, LAUNCHED—the cruiser type fleet submarine, V-5, Uncle Sam's newest submarine, launched at the Portsmouth Navy Yard. It is the first of its type to be completed and is designed chiefly for long cruises extending over a period of months. (International Newsreel)

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS—Radiating Christmas cheer, this handsome commuters' Christmas tree stands as a towering holiday sentinel in the Pennsylvania Station, New York. Scores of young and old may be seen admiring it at all hours of the day, as they hurry back and forth through the great terminal. (International Newsreel)

TO WED ROCKEFELLER—Mary Todhunter Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy H. Clark of Philadelphia, whose engagement to Nelson Rockefeller, youngest son of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has been announced. The engagement is the result of a romance which had its origin at Northeast Harbor, Me., where both families have cottages. (International Newsreel)

FRENCH ACE SETS NEW RECORD—Captain Dieudonne Coste, famous French flyer, recently set a new record for long-distance, non-stop flying, and has now shattered the existing record for distance flight over a measured close-circuited course. (International Newsreel)

BIRD BRINGS CRYPTIC MESSAGE—This white pigeon was found exhausted, resting on a window ledge at the New York Barge Office, by a customs guard, who heard a tapping at the window. Attached to its leg was the coded cryptic message "189 if 29 win". It is thought to be a rum runner's bird and officials are seeking to decipher the code. The bird will be released when its strength returns. (International Newsreel)

WHEN CARNEGIE TECH MET CALIFORNIA UNIVERSITY—50,000 football fans gathered at the Los Angeles Coliseum to witness the Carnegie Tech go down to defeat before the mighty Trojans of the University of Southern California. At the end of the battle the score board showed 45 for U. S. C. and 13 for Carnegie Scotchmen. The above shows McCurdy of Carnegie Tech in midair with ball, as he was tackled by Aspit of U. S. C. (International Newsreel)